Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How did the school develop the curriculum for ITSW?

A: The curriculum was developed through a combination of six educational systems: American, British, French, Polish, Finnish, and International Baccalaureate. ITSW selects the highest standard for each topic among the six programs, therefore creating a revolutionary, rigorous, and developmentally-appropriate curriculum for our school. Common curriculum taught through 3 languages.

Q: What is the school's philosophy?

A: Our school mission is centered around trilingualism, multiculturalism, curriculum choice, and autonomy. Our philosophy is that children become better learners and people due to these principles.

Q: Which certifications do the teachers hold?

A: Teachers are highly qualified to teach the subjects of instruction. All teachers are certified to teach in their native country (United States of America, Poland, Spain), with university degrees involving education. Our educators are trained, qualified, and certified in subject areas and child development; they believe in our school's mission and philosophy.

Q: What student support services are available?

A: ITSW is committed to providing a quality education to all students. The school has a wide variety of support services in order to meet the needs of all students and their various strengths and challenges. Our student support team consists of individuals who are able to challenge gifted students and assist struggling students, including, but not limited to a speech-language pathologist and a psychologist.

Q: How do I know if ITSW is the right school for my child?

A: ITSW is the right school for your child if you are looking for a warm and supportive environment that fosters language learning and rigorous academics. If you would like your child to reach his or her maximum potential in three different languages, you have found the right school.
