“ What’s special about UTS is the way you learn here.

It’s not about accepting things as they are, it’s about working together and collaborating to find all the things there could be. That happens here at UTS more than anywhere else.

BURSARY SUPPORT

UTS admits qualified students regardless of their financial circumstances and actively seeks students from varied socio-economic backgrounds. Our bursary support program is one of the largest among independent schools in Canada and annually awards over $1.9 million in bursary support to around 15% of students. Bursary applications are evaluated separately from the Admissions applications.

Bursary support is based on need and requires annual qualification by Apple Financial Services. To apply, visit applefinancialservices.ca.

AREAS of STUDY

“

One of the things I've appreciated the most at UTS has been taking what I've learned and applying it outside the classroom.

I know this will help my transition to university.
